GATTIS COMES OUT O. K., TOO.

CONFERENCE PASSES UPON HIS CHARACTER FAVORABLY.

He is so Well Thought of in Newbern That Men Nearly Get Out of Bed to Give Him a Place—Dr. Kilgo Makes a Speech and Thanks the Conference for Its Kindness to Him.

Special to the News and Observer.
Newbern, Dec. 6.—The conference met at 9:30 o'clock this morning, Bishop Morrison presiding. After the opening prayer the twentieth question which relates to the character and standing of the clergy was taken up. As each minister's name was called the presiding elder from his district arose and reported that the minister's life and conduct were blameless. When a presiding elder's name was called some minister well acquainted with the elder in question made a similar report.

The only addresses made at today's session were by Bishop Morrison and Dr. John C. Kilgo. The Bishop's remarks were brief, his subject being woman's work in foreign and domestic missions. His address, though brief, was interesting in the extreme. Dr. Kilgo's address was more lengthy and elaborate. Dr. Kilgo's address was more lengthy and elaborate. He began by thanking the conference for the resolution passed at yesterday's session in his behalf, and expressed his sincere appreciation of their action. He referred to the ordeal through which he had just passed at Oxford, but appeared to think it a part of every Christian's duty to suffer trials and tribulations. He spoke of the experience of both Christ and St. Paul; how Christ was tried, convicted and crucified, and how St. Paul was imprisoned and made to suffer for his religion. Rev. T. J. Gattis was invited to address the conference, but for various reasons declined the invitation. Dr. Gattis is extremely popular with the people of Newbern. His friends here are numerous, and scarcely a moment passes but that some one stops him to shake his hand and express his gratification at the outcome of the trial at Oxford.

The following incident will serve to show the feeling of considerate regard which our people entertain toward him. The night of his arrival there was some misunderstanding in regard to the room which Dr. Gattis was to occupy at Carolina Inn. It looked for awhile as though the Doctor would have to double up, so to speak. When the situation became known to the regular boarders, six of them went to the proprietor and volunteered to give up their rooms to Dr. Gattis and sleep on the floor if necessary. The matter was speedily adjusted, however, and Dr. Gattis was given a good room to himself. He expressed his appreciation of the action of the boarders in feeling words.

GATTIS PASSED.

Special to Charlotte Observer.
Newbern, Dec. 6.—Conference met at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The character of ministers in five districts were passed. The name of Rev. T. J. Gattis being called, his presiding elder, Rev. J. T. Gibbs, announced that there was nothing against him save the complications involved in his law suit against Dr. Kilgo and others. He requested the conference to pass his character as the case is still pending in court and as this action would be in accord with that of conference last year. The conference did this and referred his name to the committee on conference relation for superannuation.

Song Service at West Market Sunday Night

The Light Bearers, the juvenile missionary society of West Market, will give an entertainment, consisting of light and appropriate music, and recitations on Sunday evening. It will be tempting to them to have their friends attend and give with their silver substantial aid to the mission work which they represent. There will be no charge for admission.

Uncle Sam Wants Recruits for Cuba.
Messrs. A. M. Bridges and E. W. Moses, of Graham, enlisted yesterday at the Greensboro recruiting office for military service. They will be sent to Columbus barracks.

Orders have been received at the office here to enlist recruits for service in Cuba and Porto Rico.

COL. OSBORNE HAS PLENTY OF MEAT.

Killed His Pigs Yesterday and a Friend Sent Him a Fine Deer Today.

Col. W. H. Osborne and his Keesley Institute, which is really a little hotel in its appointments and the number of people always there, is having his Christmas now according to the old style. Yesterday he killed his pigs, and has spars ribs, back bone, sausage and liver pudding galore. But even better than this, this morning Col. Osborne got a letter from his friend, Mr. Charles Phillips, of Boynton, Va., telling him to call at the express office this morning and receive something that would interest him. Col. Osborne called and found a fat buck, neatly dressed, but yet retaining his handsome, glossy hide.

To be sure the Colonel appreciates that deer, who wouldn't? Every man who has tasted the sweets of venison knows its value.

But even before he got the buck, the Colonel was doing right well with the rich milk from his nice Jerseys, and the pork from his four pigs. Two of these, by the way, were brag pigs. They were thirteen months old and the two weighed 689 pounds.

New Minister Arrived.

Rev. H. K. Boyer, the new pastor of Centenary church, arrived from Mt. Airy at noon. He and family were met at the depot by the stewards of the church and escorted to the parsonage. Here they found a large number of the ladies of the church ready to receive them. They were given a royal welcome, too. The ladies had prepared the home fully, and the pantry was stored with provisions and all the necessary things for the family to go right to housekeeping as if they had been living there all their lives. Such a welcome no doubt does a minister's heart good, and is an auspicious introduction to his work. He cannot feel as a stranger to the good people of Centenary after their warm welcome.

Dr. P. J. Carraway went to Winston today. He goes tomorrow to his new charge at Walkertown.

Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Wood left this morning for Wadesboro. Dr. Wood's new field. They will travel by easy stages and arrive this week.

NO TRACE OF CHANLER

The Former Husband of Amelia Rives, Now the Princess Troubetzkoy, Demented and Lost
Richmond Special to Washington Post.

Nothing has been heard either here or at Castle Hill, the home of the Rives family, in Albermarle, of John Armstrong Chanler, the first husband of Amelia E. Rives, who escaped from Bloomingdale Asylum, in New York a few days ago. The Princess Troubetzkoy is not in Richmond, nor has she been in the State of Virginia since August last, when she went to Bar Harbor to recuperate her health, which gave way under the strain of literary work. A letter was received in this city yesterday from Prince Troubetzkoy, who has a studio in the Carnegie Building, New York, stating that the health of the Princess was steadily improving. She is at her home, close to New York City, and is attended by her servants and nurses. The Prince sees her every day.

New York, Dec. 5.—The efforts to find John A. Chanler, who escaped from Bloomingdale Asylum, where he had been for three years, are redoubled, but no trace of him as yet has been come upon. Another resource was tried tonight by his brother, Lewis G. Chanler, who went to police headquarters to see Chief Devary about tracing Chanler. He had a general alarm sent out for him. The description given of the missing man follows:

"John Armstrong Chanler, thirty-eight years old, weight 170 pounds, wears heavy dark blue overcoat, dark mixed suit, black shoes; is a lawyer; demented."

Chief Scott Pulls Some Himself.

Chief Scott stole a march on the dispensary detectives today, and pulled four blind tigers. There were six cases against the four and all of them were sent up to court.

ELEVEN MORE ARMORED SHIPS.

BIDS WERE OPENED BY THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY TODAY.

They Will Cost $35,000,000, and Amount to More in Tonnage Than the Entire American Navy of Ten Years Ago—Bids Not Yet Made Known.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Bids were opened at the office of the Secretary of the Navy at noon today for the construction of eleven armor clads of the first-class, five battleships and six cruisers, representing a cost to the government of about five millions. These ships will amount to more in tonnage than the entire navy of the United States ten years ago, and more in the number of vessels concerned than the number of battleships and armored cruisers now in the American service. All the big ship building firms competed, and representatives of these concerns attended the opening. Prominent naval officers were present also. The bids have not been tabulated yet, and the amounts not yet made public.

ARMY REORGANIZATION BILL PASSED.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The House of Representatives today, at the end of a long sitting, passed the army reorganization bill by a vote of 166 to 133. Three Democrats, Messrs. Hall, of Pennsylvania, and Underhill and Clayton, of New York, voted with the Republicans for the bill, and McCall, of Massachusetts, with the Democrats, against it. Otherwise it was a strict party vote. The proposition which some of the Democrats attempted to commit their side to in caucus, an extension of the present temporary army until July 1, 1903, which was voted upon indirectly on a motion to recommend, commanded the votes of only about half the opposition and of two Republicans, Mr. McCall and Mr. Mann, of Illinois. Many of the Democrats, however, voted against the motion because they were opposed not only to the reorganization bill but also to continuing the temporary army at its present strength. Quite a number of amendments were placed upon the bill before it was passed. The liveliest fight was made upon a substitute offered by Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, for the canteen section. The substitute absolutely prohibited the sale of intoxicants at military posts. The sections designed to retire General Shafter as a major general and General Fitzhugh Lee and General James E. Wilson as brigadier generals, was stricken out. Among the amendments adopted were those providing for 50 volunteer surgeons and 150 assistant surgeons for service in the Philippines; for 30 dental surgeons and for a veterinary corps with actual rank.

THE POSTOFFICE DEFICIT.

The report of the third assistant postmaster general shows the total receipts of the department to be a hundred and two millions; expenses a hundred and seven millions; the deficit five millions, three hundred and eighty-five thousand, one hundred and eighty-eight. Under the provision for payment for the loss of registered letters only fifty three losses have been reported.

SENATE IN EXECUTIVE SESSION.

The Senate is in executive session discussing the canal treaty.

Miss Marie Benedict to be Here Dec. 14th

The Euterpe Club recitals which were planned to begin this afternoon will not be inaugurated until next Friday afternoon, December 14th, when Miss Marie Benedict, the noted blind pianist, makes her first appearance in this city under the auspices of the Club. Miss Benedict's recitals are not unlike those given by the celebrated Mr. Baxter Perry, who has played here and given such great satisfaction.

The recital will be in the McAdoo House parlor, and tickets only 35c.—though three tickets will be sold for $1.00, to entitle the parties to three successive recitals under the auspices of the Club, by distinguished talent. As only a limited number of tickets can be sold, owing to the limited seating capacity of the parlor those securing tickets will be indeed fortunate.

Mr. Johnston Elected Secretary.

Special to The Telegram.

Raleigh, Dec. 7.—Rev. Livingston Johnson, of Greensboro, was unanimously elected secretary of the State Mission Board by the Baptist State Convention to succeed Rev. John E. White, resigned.

DEATH OF WILLIE BROWN

A Telegram Announces His Sudden Death—The Body Will be Brought Here Tonight.

A telegram was received this morning from Rev. Rossa O. Brown, at Waycross, Georgia, saying that his brother Willie had died suddenly and unexpectedly. No details were given. The telegram only stated that Mr. Brown was dead and that Rev. Rossa Brown, who sent it, would be here with the body tonight.

Mr. Brown was a Greensboro boy, about 25 years old and known as a young man of fine character. He was a son of the late W. A. Brown, and has two sisters living here, who have the sympathy of the community in their affliction.

At the A. & M. Tonight.

The teachers and students will render in the college chapel tonight a very beautiful and pathetic drama entitled "Maud Irving, or The Little Orphan." The object of the entertainment is to aid in raising funds for the purpose of erecting a dormitory for the girls, which is very much needed. It is hoped that all friends and well-wishers of the institution will be present. Exercises will begin at 8 o'clock.

NEW AND STRANGE STAMP.

Has No Value, But Catholics Found It Useful in Sending Their Mail.

A new and strange stamp has been attracting the attention and wonder of our post office officials. It is a stamp not found in any collection or sold by any government. It has no legal value whatsoever. Neither is it a counterfeit, nor intended to supplant in any way the stamps issued by the government authorities. It always appears accompanied by the proper number of United States postage stamps, either fastened by their side or stuck in the lower left-hand corner of the envelope, says the Philadelphia Press.

At a first glance the stamp is a surprise and a mystery to the officials. In size and general appearance it is much like those of oriental and South American countries. But a closer look at the design—a saint bearing the Christ-child in his arms—reveals its religious character. Then the men discover the letters S. A. G. at the top of the stamp, and for many of them the problem is at once solved.

Nearly everyone who has anything to do with the handling of the mails is familiar with these three initials. Thousands of letters bearing them in the lower left-hand corner or written upon the back of the envelope are received and delivered daily in this city alone. Even the least observant clerk or carrier has remarked and questioned them.

The initials and stamps are practically the same thing; or, rather, the stamp is a new phase of an ancient custom which exists over the entire world, and which during the last few years has sprung into popularity in this country. It is a Roman Catholic custom. The S. A. G. stands for "St. Anthony Guide."

Many wonderful things are attributed to St. Anthony by Catholics. He is known among them as the "miraculous saint." Countless stories are told of the cures he has effected—the wonders he performs even to-day. But the two things for which this saint is especially given credit are the finding of things lost and the guidance of all correspondence placed under his care.

Devout Catholics believe that a letter sent under the protection of Padua can never go astray. Therefore numbers of them to-day habitually inscribe "S. A. G." on all their mail matter, important or otherwise. The stamp is merely a more conspicuous method of placing correspondence in the care of the favorite saint, and so paying him additional honor. St. Anthony's stamps, as they are called, are a modern and distinctly American invention. But the custom is over a century and a half old.

It is strange that while hundreds of Catholics will not think of posting a letter until "S. A. G." is safely on the envelope, hardly one is able to explain why they have this implicit faith in St. Anthony's guidance, or from what their belief has sprung. They will say vaguely that "it is a custom; that we have always been told that St. Anthony will care for letters."

ANOTHER WAR CLOUD RISING.

THIS ONE THOUGH IS ONLY ABOUT THE SIZE OF A MAN'S HAND.

Holland and Portugal Have Broken Diplomatic Relations and Are Mobilizing Their Armies and Navies—War Seems Inevitable.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Madrid, Dec. 7.—So strained are the relations between Portugal and Holland that it is believed that war will inevitably result. The diplomatic relations of the two kingdoms are severed. The Dutch minister has been recalled from Lisbon and the Portuguese minister at The Hague has been ordered home.

The mobilization of the armies and navies of the two countries is following the ruptured diplomatic relations. The Portuguese government has removed the Dutch consular agent's paper at Lorenzo Marquez and instructed him to leave Portuguese territory.

The trouble arises from the withdrawal by Portugal of the exequatur of Herr Potts, the Dutch consul at Lorenzo Marquez, on the ground that he had used his office to assist the Boers and had thus made Portugal a party to the dispute with Great Britain.

Broom Factory Catches Fire.

Fires in Greensboro usually come three in close succession. One having occurred on Wednesday it was not surprising to hear the alarm ring for another last night. This time the fire was located in the broom factory, on Belle Meade avenue, near the Farmers warehouse. A box of ashes set the floor on fire, burning a small hole but doing no further damage.

The firemen responded in a hurry but were not needed.

The building is the property of Mr. S. S. Mitchell.

District K. of P.

Communicated.
Every Knight of Pythias in the city should do his best to go up to Winston-Salem next Monday evening and attend the district meeting to be held in Damon Castle Hall on that date. The Grand Chancellor and Grand Vice-Chancellor will be present as well as other prominent Knights from other sections of the domain, and those who can attend can rest assured that the trip will be both profitable and pleasant, and they will return to their homes filled with enthusiasm for their great and noble order.

WANTS COLLECTOR'S OFFICE.

Mr. W. A. Lemly, President of the Wachovia National Bank Hot After the Place.
Winston Sentinel.

Winston-Salem wants the office of Collector of the Fifth North Carolina Internal Revenue District.

Mr. W. A. Lemly, president of the Wachovia National Bank, is a candidate for the office, and he will have strong support in his efforts to win the prize.

It is generally conceded that Winston is more entitled to the place than any other city or town in the district, and there is good reason to believe that Mr. Lemly will secure the appointment.

The Winston branch office sells more stamps than all of the other offices in the district combined. The monthly reports show this statement to be true.

The four years' term of the present Collector, Mr. H. S. Harkins, of Asheville, will expire next May or June. He is a candidate for re-appointment, and will no doubt make a strong fight for it. He is already securing the endorsement of his friends.

The office is worth "pulling" for. It pays $4,500 a year. A Republican who is in a position to know stated today that the present Collector was aware of the fact that Mr. Lemly was in the race for the office.

Mr. Lemly will no doubt have the support of every business man in the city in his efforts to bring the headquarters for this revenue district to Winston-Salem. It would be worth a great deal to this city and section.

One of the prettiest lines of furniture in the city is a miniature set displayed in the window of J. M. Hendrix & Co. It was made by Mrs. Cator, the materials used being pasteboard. It is arranged in groups for parlor, bed room and dining room, and not the slightest detail is omitted.

Child Burned to Death.

Salisbury Truth-Index.

The fifteen-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Adams, of Spencer, was so badly burned yesterday that it may die from the result of its injuries.

Mrs. Adams left the room to perform some duty outside the house, leaving the child in the room alone. When she returned the child's clothes were ablaze. In the excitement of the moment Mrs. Adams did not attempt to extinguish the flames at first, but ran with the child in her arms to the porch, where a neighbor rushed up and enveloped the flames with a woolen garment.

The child was fearfully burned, however, and it was not thought when last heard from yesterday afternoon that it could recover.

A telephone message received at midnight last night from Spencer announced the death of the unfortunate child.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7.

PROF. DOWD ON HOPE FOR THE NEGRO.

In the December number of The Century, just out, Prof. Jerome Dowd, of Trinity College, has a very readable article on "Paths of Hope for the Negro," which contain "practical suggestions by a Southerner." The title of Prof. Dowd's article is significant, for observers have seen for a long time that the negro was, through his ever increasing inefficiency, being crowded out of the very occupations of life for which he should be the most fitted and which he had always monopolized in the South. Prof. Dowd very aptly remarks that while the negro has been striving for an education just like that of the white man for which he was neither fitted nor in need, "the Chinaman and the steam laundry have abolished the negro's wash-tub, trained white 'tonorial artists' have taken away his barber's chair, and skilled painters and plasterers and mechanics have taken away his paint-brushes and tool-chests. Every year the number of occupations open to him becomes fewer because of his lack of progress in them. Unless a radical change takes place in the scope of his education, so that he may learn better how to do his work, a tide of white immigration will set in and force him out of his last stronghold, domestic service, and limit his sphere to the farm." It may be added that machinery is fast cutting out the profit of farm labor.

To prevent this Prof. Dowd advises industrial primary schools to train the negroes in such work as sewing, cooking, laundering, carpentry and house cleaning, and in rural districts, in elementary agriculture. Prof. Dowd finds the mistake of the negro's past education has been caused by ignoring a basic psychological fact. That is that inferior races are almost wholly incapable of the power of abstraction and generalization, which are subjective processes, but are absorb almost entirely in the things that are objective. In this fact he finds the cause for the negro's love of the spectacular. He should, therefore, be trained in the cultivation of this side of his character by studies that appeal to his eye and imagination. Such studies which have a refining and softening influence upon his character should be taught as supplementary to his industrial training. He gives the negro no place in politics so long as he votes as a race.

With this training, together with better wages that increased efficiency would bring, better houses and sanitation, more home life, and a reformation in his religious ideas, Prof. Dowd finds hope for the black man. The paper is very suggestive, and we may refer to it again.

WORK OF VAST IMPORTANCE.

From an editorial in the Asheville Citizen copied from elsewhere, we take this:

The North Carolina Legislature will convene next month under circumstances which give it peculiar opportunities for usefulness along non-partisan, business lines. In vain have we endured the evils of race politics and the senatorial primary if the result has not unfettered the Legislature from the thrall of politics and left it free to deal with the material interests of the State and the various sections thereof.

The only material legislation which the Citizen suggests is on the subject of road improvement. This is true, but there can be no objection to each county having whatever law it wishes, and so this does not partake of the nature of general legislation. There are, however, a number of subjects that do, and while they may not be classified as material, they are of vast importance to the State just now, and all of them require the exercise of a broad and wise statesmanship. Ahead of all, we put the labor and educational legislation. For the first, we believe that the way is open. For the next, it is not so clear. Next to these come the questions of taking care of the State's unfortunates and her youthful criminals. For these are asked increased appropriations for the hospitals and the establishment of a reformatory. There are many minor demands to be met. And lastly, for the means of accomplishing all, there must be a readjustment of taxation so that the necessary money may be raised. Verily the weight will rest heavily upon the members of this Legislature individually and collectively. If they do not rise to the demands of the occasion there will be lasting disappointment.

Philanthropy and statesmanship, not selfishness, politics and partisanship, should be the watchwords of the hour.

MORE COURT FACILITIES NEEDED.

There has been much said about what the coming session of the Legislature should do. The Asheville Citizen has a timely editorial in which it says:

The need of additional court facilities, especially in the larger counties, will be one of the first and most important questions for consideration, and we very earnestly hope it may have the liberal, yet conservative treatment which the subject deserves.

This is really one of the very important questions which must be met. The civil dockets throughout the State are woefully behind, many of them having accumulated cases to such an extent that years will be required to clear them at the present rate. The criminal dockets also get behind. How the work shall be done we have no idea, but that it must be done is quite certain.

Even the children of Greensboro are showing the progressive spirit. One little fellow writes a letter to Santa Claus, in which he asks for two five dollar gold pieces so that he can make an investment in a factory. There's the thing for you.

The census shows that the North Carolina counties may be classified as Lord Salisbury made his famous classification of nations some two years ago, as growing ones and decaying ones.

War is too expensive a luxury for little Portugal and Holland to indulge in.

Latin-American and Pan-American.

The press of the various countries of Latin-America show a cordial interest in the Pan-American Exposition. It is recognized that their co-operation is essential to the end that the Exposition may adequately represent the progress of all the states and countries of this hemisphere. As a rule the editors of newspapers and other publications in the countries to the south of the United States display a very favorable attitude toward the enterprise. B. B. Lopez, editor and proprietor of La Correspondencia de Porto Rico, has become so enthusiastic over the Exposition that he writes to the Press Department that he is about to come to Buffalo to see for himself the progress made in the development of the Exposition. He will be accompanied by his family. Many other editors of the Latin-American press have also announced their intention to attend the Exposition, and inquiries are pouring in from these countries regarding steamboat and railroad routes. Many editors and correspondents from Central and South American countries have already visited the Exposition grounds.

The Government's Buildings.

The Government buildings at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo are being built by Rasmussen & Strehlow of Omaha. The contract calls for a group of three buildings connected by curved arcades. The main structure is to be 400 by 130 feet, with a dome 250 feet high, and the smaller buildings each 150 feet square. All departments of the government will make up to date exhibits, which the members of the Government board are now busy collecting and getting into shape.

After quite an extended experience of prescribing and noting results of the various mineral waters, I unhesitatingly think this water the best renovator and "builder" up of them all. For Scrofula, catarrh and blood diseases generally it is almost a specific. Too much, in my opinion, cannot be said of the curative properties of the Vade Mecum Water.

Wisconsin's Building.

Commissioners from Wisconsin, who have charge of the exhibits from that state at the Pan-American Exposition, have selected a site for the State building. About 20 acres have been set apart on the eastern side of the Exposition grounds for state and foreign buildings. The site chosen for the Wisconsin building is nearly opposite the large buildings of the National governments just south of one of the mirror lakes and south of the Ohio building. It will overlook the Esplanade, with its wonderful fountains and gardens, and a number of the large buildings will be in full view. The Wisconsin commission are Willard A. Van Brunt and George B. Burrows of Madison, B. E. Edwards of Lacrosse, Charles Reynolds of Sturgeon Bay and George H. Yule of Kenosha. Wisconsin will spend $25,000 on her building and exhibits at Buffalo.

A $6,000 A. O. U. W. Building.

The Supreme Lodge has appropriated $3,000 and the State Lodge $3,000 more to be used for the erection and furnishing of a fine headquarters building at the Pan-American Exposition. The Supreme Lodge will meet in Buffalo next year. The building is a handsome pavilion, with rooms for rest, and the upper floor a great balcony, with easy chairs, for all members of the order who attend the Exposition.

8063—Child's Dress with Yoke.
6 mos., 1, 2 and 4 years.

CHILD'S DRESS WITH YOKE, NO. 8063.

This simple little dress of white nainsook is prettily trimmed with Valenciennes lace and inserted tucking. It is adjusted with shoulder and under-arm seams, closing in the center back.

The full skirt is gathered and applied at the lower edge of the yoke, which is of unique shaping and extends under the arms, giving a stylish effect to the garment.

The yoke is edged with a lace frill. The neck is completed with a band, lace trimmed.

The bishop sleeves have comfortable fullness gathered at the shoulders and finished with a narrow wrist band which is covered with insertion.

The lower edge of the skirt is made with a deep hem surmounted by three tucks, a row of insertion and an additional cluster of tucks which form a dressy trimming.

Stylish little frocks in this mode may be developed in lawn, dimity, gingham or percale with embroidery or fancy cotton braid for trimming. It is also appropriate for silk, poplin, cheviot, cashmere or Henrietta, which can be combined with velvet, silk, allover lace or applique.

To make the dress for a child of two years will require two yards of thirty-six inch material. The pattern, No. 8063, is cut in sizes for children six months, one, two and four years.

A dress lately finished for one of the winter's debutantes is of pale-blue satin, showing a dainty embroidery of fine silver on transparent gauze. The satin is cut out in medallion form, so that a lining of pale yellow chiffon appears through the silver gauze. At the back of the bodice there are four black chiffon rosettes crossing from right to left and finished at the waist with floating scarf ends of black chiffon.

The front of the waist is very prettily arranged with chiffon and silver embroideries over pale yellow, while on one shoulder there is a huge black and velvet poppy.

The beauty of the toilet is the charming harmony of its coloring.

THE TELEGRAM will receive and forward orders for all patterns described in this column. The price is only ten cents for each pattern to cover cost of mailing and handling. In ordering fill blank below and send to The Telegram office:

WALL STREET BROKERS CAUGHT IN SHADY TRANSACTIONS.

Books and Papers Confiscated and C. W. Morgan and His Clerk Arrested—Members of the Other Firms Had Been Given the Tip and They Could Not Be Found—Results of the Investigation Made by the District Attorney's Office.

New York, Dec. 5.—As the result of investigations made by Assistant District Attorney Byrne, C. W. Morgan, trading as C. W. Morgan & Co., stock brokers, and Morgan's bookkeeper, Michael Hart, were today arrested on the charge of conspiracy and grand larceny. The men were located in police headquarters.

The detectives confiscated all the books and papers in the office of Morgan and in the offices of L. E. Van Riper and John B. McKenzie, discretionary brokers. Van Riper and McKenzie had left their offices. It was found that the written matter in the books of Van Riper and McKenzie had been torn out, leading the police to suppose that they had been informed of their coming.

The attention of Assistant District Attorney Byrne was directed to the matter through his work in the Shera case, the defendant having been arrested for it, it is said, securing a sum of money from Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, three weeks ago, which was to be invested in stock. Shera's bookkeeper, it is alleged, intimated that such men were in vogue with other brokers in Wall street.

OPERATIONS ON A LARGE SCALE.

A thorough investigation was made, and it was found that McKenzie and Van Riper did an extensive business throughout the United States and Canada. They sent out as many as 100,000 letters a week, some of which told how easily money was made in Wall street, and others explaining certain deals, the money to be sent to Morgan & Co., or C. B. Lawrence, Jr. Van Riper and McKenzie, it is alleged, advised each other of their success with the prospective customer, and they, in turn, advised Morgan. If a man sent money to Morgan, he would advise the brokers. Morgan had an office at Thirty-third street and Broadway, and the police say he had various offices throughout the country.

The complainant against the prisoners is William S. Bailey, a mill owner at Matteawan, N. J. The police say they have thirty others who will testify against the men, and one of the thirty admits having lost $29,000 through deals.

ONE CUSTOMER'S EXPERIENCE.

When the police entered Morgan's office to arrest him, they found a man, whose name Capt. McClusky refuses to divulge at this time, inquiring as to what had become of his money. The man went with the detectives to police headquarters, where he said he had paid $500 with the brokers and had made $334 last month. He had left the $500 with the brokers to be traded with, and on Tuesday afternoon was told that it had been used to purchase sugar at 134, which was the highest price. When he inquired as to the profits the man claims he was informed that sugar "went down," and his money was wiped out.

Assistant District Attorney Byrne is at the strongest point against accompanied by mucous patches in the mouth, eruptions on the skin, sore throat, copper colored spots, swollen glands, aching muscles and bones, the disease is making rapid headway, and far worse symptoms will follow unless the blood is promptly and effectually cleansed of this violent destructive poison. S. S. S. is the only safe and infallible cure for this disease, the only antidote for this specific poison. It cures the worst cases thoroughly and permanently. In the fall of 1897 I contracted Blood Poison. I tried three doctors, but did me no good; I was getting worse all the time; my hair came out, ulcers appeared in my throat and mouth, my body was almost covered with copper colored spots and offensive sores. I suffered severely from rheumatic pains in my shoulders and arms. My condition could have been no worse; only those afflicted as I was can understand my sufferings. I had about lost all hope of ever being well again when I decided to try S. S. S., but must confess I had little faith left in any medicine. After taking the third bottle I noticed a change in my condition. This was truly encouraging, and I determined to give S. S. S. a thorough trial. From that time on the improvement was rapid; S. S. S. seemed to have the disease completely under control; the sores and ulcers healed and I was soon free from all signs of the disorder. I have been strong and healthy ever since.

the brokers is the fact that in their advice sent out to men who sent money to Morgan some were told conditions were favorable and others were told the same day that conditions were unfavorable on the same stock. Mr. Byrne says that while Morgan, who was a member of the Consolidated Exchange, undoubtedly made some transactions which are in the records, he made other transactions which counterbalanced the ones he made for the benefit of his customers.

PITY AND BEAUTY

The most beautiful thing, in the world, is the baby, all dimples and joy. The most pitiful thing is that same baby, thin and in pain.

The dimples and joy have gone, and left hollows and fear. It is fat that is gone; gone with it, comfort and color and curve; all but pity and love.

The little one gets no fat from her food: has had none for weeks: she is living on what she had stored in that plump little body of hers. She is starving for fat; it is death; be quick!

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil is the fat she can take. It will save her.

We'll send you a little to try if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRH—DIS EASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure on so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

When the stomach is tired out it must have a rest, but we can't live without food. ## GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

Buildings Going Up.

The magnificent buildings which are to house the exhibits of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo next summer are fast progressing toward completion and will soon be ready for the collections which are on the way from all quarters of the American continent. The scene upon the grounds of the Exposition, in the northern part of the city, including part of the famous Delaware Park, is a busy one, and every day sees some definite progress made in the construction work. Conditions have been very favorable to rapid work, and the Pan-American Exposition bids fair to break the record in the matter of swift construction of Exposition buildings and their entire completion before the time arrives to open the gates to the general public.
